

Wine List

We take great pride in offering truly outstanding local Cornish wines, alongside a range of international options. Considering Cornwall has a very similar soil profile to the Champagne region, you can see why Cornwall is producing some of the best sparkling wines available. Cornish still wines are multi award winning too. While you're here we recommend you enjoy English wine, in our opinion, at its very best.

Red

Le Haut-Medoc De Mauvesin Barton, France 14%Vol. 750ml 38

A bold, lively and well-rounded classic Bordeaux blend from Médoc, which has the perfect clay limestone and gravel soils for both Merlot & Cab Sav grape varieties. This ancient winemaking estate produces knockout vintages and the fine tannic structure is balanced beautifully by a freshness of vibrant fruit and hint of pepper on the palate whereas the nose features Raspberry and redcurrant.

Bottle only

46

Chateau de Montmirail Vacqueyras AOC Cuvée des Deux Frères, France 14.5%Vol. 750ml

Bottle only

A full rich example of how good French wine really can be, and made not far from the famous Chateau neuf du Pape. The family running this estate was the first to bottle in Vacqueyras and has been doing so for three generations. The earthy tones and full body help reveal lots of dark red fruit, cinnamon spice and a great structure of tannin. A great 'Beef Wellington' wine.
